

VARNISHED MATT ANTIQUE RED COPPER

Copper is more raw and natural than Rose Gold and currently a very fashionable way to add character to a decor. Antique Red Copper, industrial and retro, is worked manually in the THG Paris workshops and constitutes a bold choice.

Reference: H07

CHARACTERISTICS

The authentic rendering of this finish results from the application of a thick layer of blackened and manually aged copper reinforced by a polyester coating which strengthens the protection of the finish. This delicate coating requires conscientious care using designated products in order to preserve its original appearance.
